Valuations for Funding Purposes

Roberts and Roberts are currently on the panel of a large number of the main lending institutions and can offer a comprehensive valuation for funding purposes. We also undertake valuations for company accounts and various other purposes.

Valuations for Probate and Taxation Purposes

Roberts and Roberts are experienced in providing probate valuations on individual properties and portfolios of properties throughout the North West. We also provide valuations for Inheritance Tax and Capital Gains Tax purposes and will liaise with the client's professional advisers, as necessary, for the benefit of the client.

Insurance Reinstatement Cost Valuations

Roberts and Roberts can provide Insurance Reinstatement Cost valuations to ensure that any individual commercial property or portfolio of properties is adequately insured for reinstatement purposes, should the property be damaged or destroyed by unforeseen circumstances.

Pension Fund Valuations

Our surveyors can provide independent valuations for pension funds which can include both a capital and rental valuation as required by the pension company.

Building Surveys

Roberts and Roberts surveyors can offer a comprehensive survey on any form of commercial property which will go into great detail in terms of the property's construction, reporting both major and minor defects affecting the property, so that the client can fully assess the long term maintenance liability in respect of a building.

Sales & Lettings

Roberts and Roberts offer a free initial appraisal to any party wishing to consider a disposal of their commercial premises by way of a sale or letting, whether it be retail, office or industrial property. Roberts and Roberts can advise on the best form of disposal to achieve the client the best price for their building. We also offer comprehensive advice as the transaction proceeds.

Chartered Surveyors, Property Agents & Valuers

Advice on Business Rates

Roberts and Roberts have a large number of retained clients who they advise in respect of their business rates liability. This includes appealing against individual assessments to reduce the overall liability of the individual client. Additional advice can also be provided to limit the clients overall responsibility in connection with rates payable including advice on empty property rates.

Property Management & Rent Collection

Roberts and Roberts has a Property Management Department, which can provide both a rent collection service and a full property management service, as required by the individual client. Computer generated statements of income and expenditure can be provided on a monthly, quarterly or annual basis.

Rent Reviews and Lease Renewals

Roberts and Roberts Surveyors are experienced in dealing with rent reviews and lease renewals both for Landlords and Tenants. They also have experience in dealing with a wide range of commercial premises throughout the North West. We are also experienced in Third Party submissions and Court proceedings if an amicable settlement is not possible between Landlord and Tenant.

Schedules of Condition & Dilapidation

Our surveyors can produce Schedules of Condition to protect a tenant when they are taking a new lease. These reports can also include a photographic schedule of the premises, outlining all major items of disrepair. In addition Schedules of Dilapidation can also be prepared for Landlords, to ensure that an outgoing Tenant fully meets their repairing obligations under the terms of their lease.

Energy Performance Certificates

Our RICS qualified staff can provide Energy Performance Certificates on individual premises or portfolios of properties, whether they be on commercial or residential premises.

Expert Reports for Court

The three directors of Roberts and Roberts have over 60 years experience between them, in both the residential and commercial sectors of the property market and are well versed in providing reports for Court proceedings in accordance with the Civil Procedures Rules, whether these reports be for matrimonial, professional negligence or other forms of litigation.
